Probably the best and most original TZ350E

as near as it left the factory 40 years ago, even has the original master cylinder and brake lines all working.

Matching crankcase and frame numbers. Hitachi ignition, sounds superb.

£12,000

YAMAHA XJR1300SP

(1999)

The SP version took this XJR1300 to an even higher level, Ohlins shock absorbers and rare white, red and black 'AMA Racing Series style' paint scheme.

If you're after a big spirited retro machine then look no further. This XJR1300SP is everything you could ask for from a motorcycle.

The 1251cc 4-cylinder 4-stroke engine is so relaxed and yet full of torque. It's all about enjoying the ride. Having covered only 12,640 miles by me from new subsequently it's in excellent condition, MoT until October.
